Discover the Joy of Acting with Petina!

Six years ago, Petina moved to Eastbourne from London, where she worked as a theatre director and acting coach. She ran an Actors Studio in Holborn and led From Page to the Stage at the Lyric Hammersmith.

Though she intended to retire, her passion for teaching and directing continues! Her latest project, In Search of the Dance—a play about Maurice Ravel—will be performed at The Lantern Theatre, Brighton, from May 2nd to 4th. While taking classes in tap and dance movement, Petina has enjoyed getting to know the Venton Centre and The Underground Theatre. Many people at the centre have asked if she would run a fun acting class—and she's excited to say yes!

Petina believes that everyone acts in some way every day. This fully inclusive class is designed for all to enjoy, with plenty of fun along the way.

“I love acting. It is so much more real than life.”
– Oscar Wilde

Come along and see if this class is for you!
